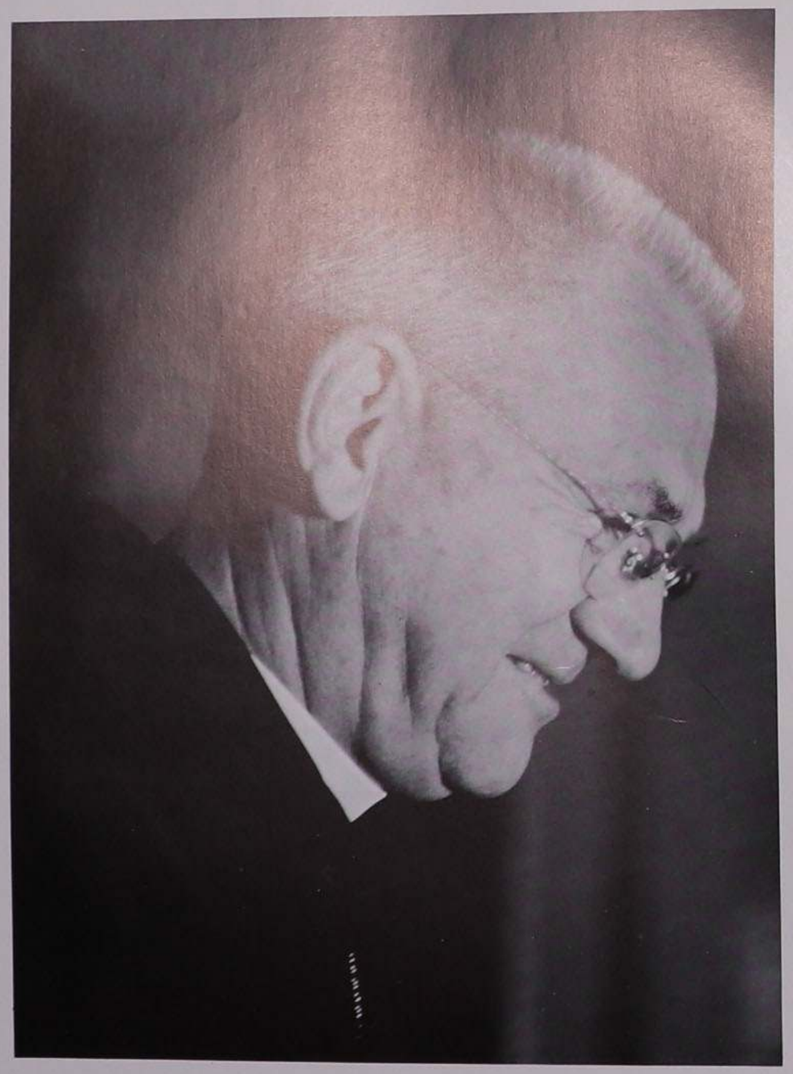
FOREWORD

The design of a college is woven in many strands of strength and color to form the completed pattern. The warp and the woof of the strand of activities in the classroom and outside it is the scintillating thread that makes the pattern unique and original. It is the struggle in training to find new inspirations in the labor of learning and the experience of experiment.

This is a rare and memorable occasion in the history of Saint Leo. As you read through these words, the seniors pictured in this book will already have received their Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degrees, the first awarded by Saint Leo College.

As the college worked to build its physical plant and to draw around it a staff of accomplished and dedicated educators, these pioneering seniors matured with their alma mater in its struggle for growth. This suggests several of the past themes of the Golden Legend. It was "The Joy of Growth" in 1965. "Reaching for Maturity" was the 1966 theme. The theme of this book is "Working Toward Fulfillment". In these pages we recall some of the joy of growth and the search for maturity that brings fulfillment.

The Editors



RT. REV. MARION BOWMAN, O.S.B., Chancellor.

The burden of a man is not the weight of his tasks but how he carries them;
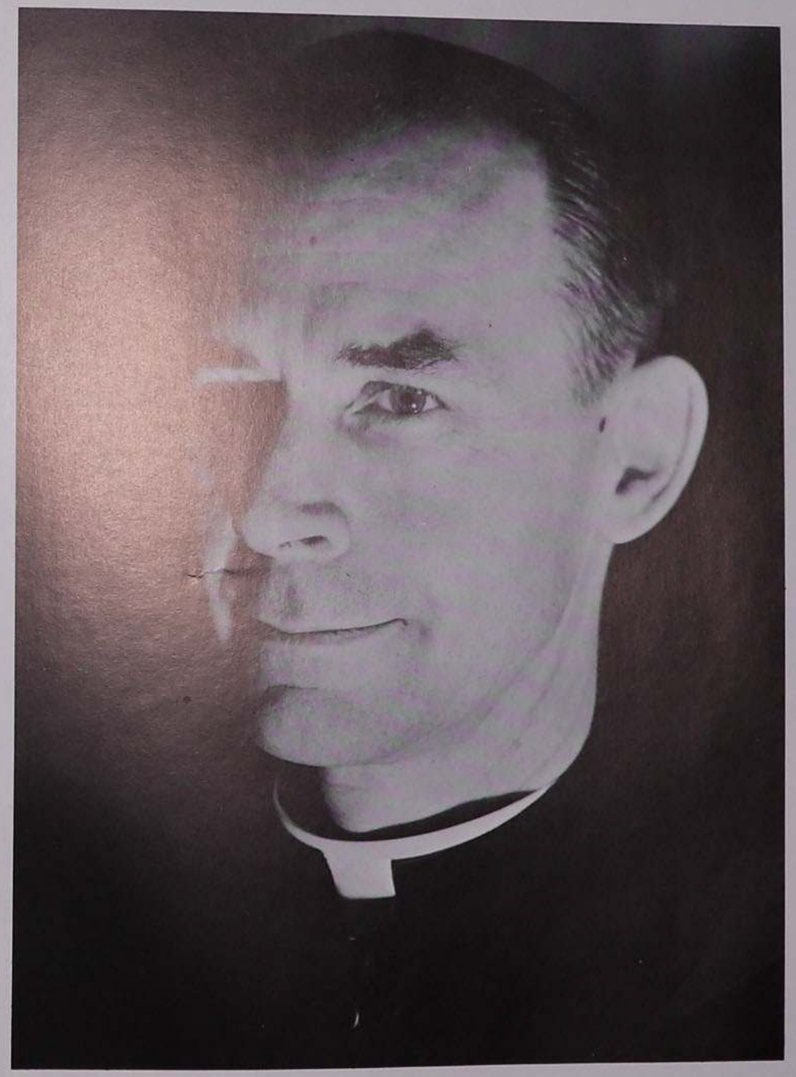
the wise man finds
the burden light
and the yoke sweet.



REV. STEPHEN HERRMANN, O.S.B., President.

In the time of planting and the careful nurturing until the reaping of the harvest the sower must watch through serenity and storm over his patrimony.

EPILOGUE

These are the good years in the joy of our growth;
the time of search
reaching for maturity,
working toward fulfillment.

We lay our foundations.
We form forever
the mold of our minds.
We send out roots,
anchoring ourselves
in the fertile soil of intellect, budding forth in the springtime of our growth.

We touch upon newness within and beyond ourselves.

We see strange facets
of our fresh life
and weave designs
that form eternal patterns on the woof of mankind.

We bring the challenge
of inquiring minds,
searching to find ourselves,
reaching toward goals,
discovering old truths,
looking for new ones;
finding fecundity.

We venture
into a strange world
of new awakenings,
met with the mystery
of learning
and our knowledge of hope on the path to wisdom and understanding.

We discover ourselves
in the slow growth through the eternal process of becoming civilized.
